SIOUXLAND COMMUNITY BLOOD BANK
ANNOUNCES 2009 BOARD

SIOUX CITY, IA March 19, 2009—The Siouxland Community Blood Bank has announced its 2009-2010 Board of Directors.

Leif Erickson, attorney at law of Sioux City, and Shay Gebauer, community volunteer of Sioux City, are the newest members of the 18-member board.

Retiring from the board are Secretary Scott Wilson, retired, and Treasurer Larry Book, L & L Book Properties. Filling their vacancies are current board members Mark Reinders, MidAmerican Energy, as secretary and Joel Steenhoven, Siouxland Federal Credit Union, as treasurer.

Book has been a member of the Siouxland Community Blood Bank Board of Directors since 1989 and Wilson has been a member since 1995. Both Book and Wilson have served the board actively and diligently for their terms.

Along with Reinders and Steenhoven, executive board members include President Mike Borschuk, United Real Estate Solutions, Inc., Vice President Dr. Robert Dunker, Western Iowa Tech Community College, Member-At-Large Dr. Gregg Galloway, Mercy Medical Center, and Member-At-Large Karen Van De Steeg, June E. Nylen Cancer Center.

Erickson and Gebauer will be joining these current board members: Nancy Augustine, community volunteer, Le Mars, IA; John Daniels, community volunteer, Hinton, IA; Warren Erickson, Director of Laboratory Services for Avera Sacred Heart Hospital, Yankton, SD; Dr. Richard Hildebrand, Vice President of Medical Affairs for St. Luke's Regional Medical Center, Sioux City, IA; Dennis Lipp, State National Bank & Trust, Wayne, NE; Tom Rasmusson, CEO of Avera Queen of Peace Hospital, Mitchell, SD; Gary Riedmann, CEO of St. Anthony Regional Hospital, Carroll, IA; Marla Toering, administrator for Sioux Center Hospital, Sioux Center, IA; Mary Tramp, community volunteer, Blencoe, IA; and Steven Witten, Security National Bank, Sioux City, IA.

The Siouxland Community Blood Bank is a nonprofit organization that has provided all blood and related services to Mercy Medical Center and St. Luke's Regional Medical Center since 1967. The Siouxland Community Blood Bank is the sole provider of 35 additional hospitals in Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota.
